

My Loved Ones:

God says in Revelation 5:12 - "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing."

That glory of the Lamb will be ours when we meet Him face to face.

The song of today was the most popular of the Billy Sunday evangelistic tours in the states. Charles Gabriel was one of the most popular gospel song writers one hundred years ago. He had a friend, Ed Card, who was a radiant believer and always would explode with "glory" during prayer or in a sermon. His beaming smile gave him the nickname of "old glory face." He usually always ended his prayers with a reference to Heaven, and said, "and that will be glory for me. In Jesus Name, Amen."

Many Christians have a false view of what Heaven will be. It's not the best of Christian motives to look forward to Heaven only because we won't have problems. We will have eternal life with the Son of God, that's not just length of life, but quality of life. We will have new bodies; mysteries will be made clear. Victory will be ours because of Jesus. We will have all knowledge. In Heaven we will be far greater musical experts than we are now.

In this "Glory Song," Jesus is the theme of Heaven. Thank the Lord today for this!

When all my labors and trials are o'er, / And I am safe on that beautiful shore,
Just to be near the dear Lord I adore / Will through the ages be glory for me.

When, by the gift of His infinite grace / I am accorded in heaven a place,
Just to be there and to look on His face / Will through the ages be glory for me.

Friends will be there I have loved long ago; / Joy like a river around me will flow;
Yet just a smile from my Savior, I know, / Will through the ages be glory for me.

O that will be glory for me,
Glory for me, / glory for me!
When by His grace I shall look on His face.
That will be glory, be glory for me!

We love you and are praying for you today.
